

(proposed for Fall 2001) - DRAFT - (proposed for Fall 2001)
COMMUNICATION DISORDERS GRADUATE PROGRAM
EASTERN KENTUCKY UNIVERSITY

We want to improve our program and make it even better. We are recommending the following curriculum content and course sequence for students admitted to the program in Fall 2001. Compare it to the current (blue) advising sheet. We are currently seeking approval of this revised curriculum from the appropriate university channels.

PROGRAM SEQUENCE	First Year	REQUIRED HOURS
Fall
SED 873 Advanced Articulation & Phonological Disorders		3
SED 874 Graduate Practicum: Speech Pathology		3
SED 878 Diagnosis of Communication Disorders		3
SED 879 Dysphagia		3
SED 880 Research Methodology in Communication Disorders		3
		15
Spring
*Approved Elective or Research Project/Thesis Option		3
SED 874 Graduate Practicum: Speech Pathology		3
SED 875 Neurogenic Language Disorders		3
SED 876 Advanced Voice Disorders		3
SED 877 Advanced Fluency Disorders		3
		15
Summer
SED 863 Motor Speech Disorders		3
SED 867 Advanced Language Disorders		3
SED 874 Graduate Practicum: Speech Pathology		3
		9
Second Year
Fall - Professional Semester I
SED 720 Augmentative and Alternative Communication Systems		3
SED 898 Externship in Communication Disorders		6
		9
Spring - Professional Semester II
SED 870 Professional Issues in Communication Disorders		3
SED 897 Field Experience in Special Education (Student Teaching in Communication Disorders)		6
		9
Summer
*Approved Elective		3
*Approved Elective		3
		6
*Approved Elective or Research Project/Thesis Option:
Regularly offered electives (6 to 9 hours) include:
SED 801 Advanced Early Childhood Assessment
or 802 Advanced Early Childhood Intervention Programming
SED 861 Communication Disorders in Atypical Populations
SED 885 Cognitive Rehabilitation
Other elective courses may be from related areas such as:
CDF, EDF, EPY, NUR, OTS, PSY, SED, or related other field
Research Project/Thesis Option (3 hours):
SED 899 Research Project

Total Program Requirements = 63 hours (MA degree/Rank I in CD)