

LEARNING AND BEHAVIOR DISORDERS...P-12
GRADUATE CERTIFICATION PROGRAM
A Non-Degree Program

INFORMATION SHEET ONLY

Prerequisite: Undergraduate degree and KY Provisional Teaching Certificate. Must have successfully completed the following courses or equivalents: ELE 445, ELE446/EMG 447, MAT 201, MAT 202, LIB 301, and ELE/EMG 492, 493.

SED 775	Nature and Needs of Exceptional Students
SED 722	Language Disorders of Students with Disabilities
SED 388	Career Education and Transition
SED 718	Special Education in Early Childhood
SED 776	Introduction to Special Education Assessment
SED 778\779	Behavioral Disorders (or) Learning Disabilities
SED 356	Special Education Methods and Materials
SED 745	Program and Personnel Management
SED 790	Applied Behavior Analysis
SED 791	Instruction of Secondary LBD Students
SED 774	Field Experiences with Exceptional Learners
SED 793	Teaching Children with Behavior & Learning Disorders
SED 897 <sup>4</sup>	Practicum in Special Education

TOTAL HOURS OF SED COURSEWORK = 40

NOTE: Completion of the above program will not suffice for completion of a Rank program. LBD certification coursework must be completed before enrollment in the LBD M.A.Ed. courses. For LBD Certification, the PRAXIS test in the area of specialty must be passed.